Chapter 11 (Subchapter V)

ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO SHORTEN TIME

On July 9, 2021, Debtor Pierce Contractors, Inc. filed a motion to impose the automatic stay in the above-captioned small business Chapter 11 case. ECF 5. The same day, Debtor also filed a motion to shorten time, which asked I set the hearing on the motion to impose the automatic stay for July 13, 2021 at 10:30 a.m. ECF 8. Debtor states shortened time is necessary to hear the motion before a pending foreclosure on Debtor's real property at 194 Lantz Drive, Morgan Hill California, which is currently set for July 19, 2021. Debtor contacted counsel for relevant creditors in its prior bankruptcy case, see Case No. 20-50182, who stated they did not oppose the motion to shorten time.

I conclude the motion satisfies Bankruptcy Local Rule 9006-1(c), and therefore grant it, but will not set the hearing for July 13, 2021. Instead, I will set the hearing on Debtor's motion to impose the automatic stay for July 15, 2021 at 11:30 a.m. Debtor shall serve
